Meeting with Organizations:

4:05pm – Event Appropriation Application

Organization: Economics Club

Name of Event: Economics Club Banquet

Event Date: 4/26/17

Application Date: 03/15/17

Location: WCBA Room 3423

Expected Participation: 20

Total Cost of Event: $417.78

Description of Event: The Economics Club hosts an annual banquet to honor members of the Economics Club, winners of the Stocks Essay Contest, and new inductees into Omicron Delta Epsilon, the International Honor Society in Economics. This year, we are honored to welcome former Youngstown Mayor Jay Williams as a keynote speaker. Mr. Williams is currently the Assistant Secretary for Economic Development at the US Department of Commerce.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body The banquet's keynote speaker - Jay Williams -- will be of great interest to many at YSU and in the Youngstown community. Also, by honoring student accomplishments in the field of economics, we can reinforce the importance of scholastic achievement and the involvement in the YSU community.

Itemized costs:

Dinner Buffet = $18.99 per person

$18.99 x 20 Economics Club members = $379.80

$379.80 + 10% service fee = $417.78

Fundraising: The Economics Club sold Daffins Candy Bars in the Fall. We are also organizing a trip to the Cleveland Federal Reserve Bank in the Spring. Non-members will be required to pay to participate in the field trip.

Community Service • In the Fall, we volunteered at the Nun Run, a benefit for the Ursuline Sisters HIV/AIDS Ministry. Members served as race directors, at the registration desk, at the raffle, and assisted with clean-up. We collected donations for Project Connect, which helps homeless in our area. Last month, we organized the first annual Penguin Waddle, a charity event which raised $400 for the Ursuline Sisters Childrens Ministry.

Applying for future appropriations within this academic year: Unsure

Contact Person: Michael Leckfor

Total Number of Members: 20

The suggested appropriation is $417.78 from the general fund to defray the cost of for service fee.

Event Date: 05/04/17

Application Date: 03/20/2016

Location: 685 Boardman-Canfield Rd, Boardman (Los Gallos Mexican Restaurant) OH 44512

Expected Participation: As of right now, we have 23 individuals going and 57 individual interested in attending. The number is expected to change closer to the event.

Total Cost of Event: $201.29

Description of Event: The Cinco de Mayo Celebration is a fundraising effort for two outside agencies within the Mahoning Valley that provide numerous services to those in need: OCCHA and Community Legal Aid. In addition to fundraising efforts, the event will also feature a musical performance by The Labra Brothers (local band featuring fellow Youngstown State University students). Along with musical performances by the Labra Brothers, there shall be a 50/50 raffle and basket raffle in which all proceedings shall go to benefit OCCHA and Community Legal Aid. The event shall be held at Los Gallos Mexican Restaurant (Boardman- Canfield Road) on Thursday, May 4, 2017 from 8:00 p.m. to 2:00 A.M.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body The Cinco de Mayo Celebration is an event to bring the Youngstown State University student populace and the community together to assist others in need. As a student organization, the Youngstown Student Latino Organization understands the importance of promoting cultural diversity and inclusion on college campuses. It is within our mission statement as an organization to inform and educate the surrounding community and campus about the diverse population of Hispanics/ Latinos. With this in mind, the social event shall introduce the Youngstown State University community and students to the Hispanic and Latino diversity that exists on campus. Our event is to bring the community and Youngstown State University faculty, students, and staff together in order to support outside agencies which advocate for diversity, equity, and inclusion. By supporting these two organizations (OCCHA and Community Legal Aid), we will be able to give back to those who are in need of our assistance.

Itemized Cost:

$150 for security with Boardman Police Department

$7.26 for two rolls of raffle tickets

$12.78 for two 100 packs of wrist bands

$16.25 for promotional posters (25 poster of 12x18 posters - $0.65 per poster )

$15.00 for promotional flyers (50 flyers - $0.30 per each flyer)

Fundraising: As of currently, we have not designed a fundraiser for this upcoming semester due to conflicting schedules amongst the officers. However, in the past, we conducted two bake sales in which the money is currently saved in our account.

Community Service: Cesar Chavez Blood Drive 2017: Collected blood for Lifeshare in honor of Cesar Chavez. There were four volunteers and 16 individuals who donated blood.

Hispanic Heritage Celebration 2016: To promote diversity within the Youngstown State University campus, we co-sponsored various events to illustrate the Hispanic/ Latino culture to the campus community. We had a total of seven to ten volunteers for the various events sponsored such as the Hispanic Hertiage Celebration event and opening ceremony. We also provided food and entertainment during International Coffee Hour for the international and domestic student population.

Three Kings Day: The Youngstown Student Latino Organization (three member volunteers) assisted in distributing toys and food to 125 children at the event sponsored by OCCHA.

Applying for future appropriations within this academic year: Yes

Contact Person: Bruno Serrano

Total Number of Members: 30

The suggested appropriation is $170.04 from the general fund to defray the cost of wristbands, tickets, and police department.

Fundraising: Fundraising for Alpha Xi Delta is usually asking businesses for donations. We call or go visit different businesses and ask them if they can donate something to help us with our philanthropy event, whether it be something we need for the event or money for the event. Sometimes we can get things donated for the event, and other times we get gift cards or things at a discounted price. Any help we get to put on our events are greatly needed and appreciated.

Community Service Alpha Xi Delta requires all members do at least 15 hours of community service every semester. In addition to this, every member helps out with the philanthropy events we put on. Last semester, we did an event called Football Frenxi. This was a football competition where people paid to play. Another thing that we do, is on April 1st, Greek life does something called Greeks in the Streets. This is a day where people in Greek life go out and volunteer in the community. We encourage everyone in our chapter to attend this event.

Applying for future appropriations within this academic year: Yes

Contact Person: Tessa Butcher

Total Number of Members: 30

The suggested appropriation is $1,000 from the general fund to defray the cost of food and supplies for the event.

4:40pm – Event Appropriation Application

Organization Name: Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Name of Event: SAE National Convention

Event Date: 07/06/17

Application Date: 3/19/17

Location: Boston, MA

Expected Participation: 2

Total Cost of Event: $675

Description of Event: Every two years, Sigma Alpha Epsilon holds a national convention for its members. As an undergraduate chapter, we are required to send a voting delegate to this meeting. We plan and budget the amount ($525) for one member to go, this funding would go towards sending another delegate from Youngstown State's chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body?: Delegates going to convention have a chance to partake in the biggest meeting of over 400 undergraduates and alumni from SAE. Not only will they gain networking and valuable skills from attending the convention, but also they will have the opportunity to bring back skills to YSU.

Itemized Cost:

$525- registration fee for the conference

$150- hotel for the convention

Fundraising: We have budgeted for one member to attend as well as having a fundraiser that raised money for the travel fees of the members attending.

Community Service: This semester our organization: had a team at the GUINATHON dance for the children's miracle network, Helped at national pancake day at IHOP, and we are in the process of planning our biggest philanthropic week of the year in April. Last year for our philanthropy week we raised $1,500 for the children's miracle network and plan to raise more than that by having different events every day of the week. Some of these events include: Grilled cheese with the SAE's, a restaurant takeover, and a brother auction.

Applying for future appropriations within this academic year: Yes

Contact Person: Trenton Cersoli

Total Number of Members: 37

The suggested appropriation is $675 from the general fund.

4:40pm – Event Appropriation Application

Organization Name: Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Name of Event: Grilled Cheese with the SAEs

Event Date: 04/18/17

Application Date: 3/28/17

Location: Newman Center

Expected Participation: 150

Total Cost of Event: $143.98

Description of Event: Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity celebrates Paddy Week annually. It makes an effort to raise money for its national philanthropy, the Children's Miracle Network. Tuesday of Paddy Week will be our Grilled Cheese with the SAEs event. It is a chance to not only enjoy some great food with some better brothers, but a chance to give people to children in need. The event will be held in the Newman Center from 4-8.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body?: This event offers a reasonably priced meal for college students, wherein the money goes to a great cause. Approaching the end of the academic year, this event, along with other Paddy events, aim to let students relax and have fun before scrambling to study for finals. The Newman Center, additionally is a great venue to enjoy a meal and reflect on the past year. It promotes the philanthropic intent of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Greek Life in general, which will hopefully promote the positive impact that certain student organizations have on this campus.

Itemized Cost:

Grilled Cheese

$24 - 10 pounds of American Cheese

$54 - 36 loaves of bread

$10 - 3 pounds of butter

$10 - 12 pack of tomato soup (1)

$9.57 - 300 paper bowls

$10 - 200 paper plates

$6.41 - 6 pack of paper towel (1)

$6 - Lemonade mix

$8 - Cups

$6 - Pickle spears (1 jar)

Fundraising: This semester, for St. Valentine's Day, our organization held our event called Crush Cans, where we deliver valentine's and a can of crush soda for $5. We profited over $300 for that event (held over a two week period). On March 27, we had a table for a 50/50 raffle that brought in over $100. We also have a fundraiser at Panda Express on Thursday, March 30. We will also have a pig roast in the future.

Community Service: Recently, our chapter emphasizes community service. We offer many events for brothers to donate their time. In the beginning of December, we held our Sundaes with the SAEs event, where 12-15 brothers donated a total of nearly 100 hours. Our chapter advisor keeps us heavily involved with the boy scouts, where we have organized bags of popcorn and are involved in a large event during the summer, where brothers (~20) direct traffic in a parking lot. We (~7-10) were involved in national pancake day at IHop, where brothers helped bus tables. We (~2-5) also participated in free cone day at Dairy Queen. Many brothers are involved in other organizations that offer opportunities for brothers to get involved additionally.
