Name of Event: Bass University Seminars

Event Date: 2/10/17 Application Date: 12/13/16

Location: Columbus, OH

Expected Participation: 6 members

Total Cost of Event: $1,400

Description of Event: The Club will be going down to listen to seminars about bass fishing.

There will be Professionals talking about a variety of topics. These topics include boat safety and sportsmanship. We will be representing Ysu by attending the Bass University and putting the club and University name out their for people to see about bass fishing.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body?: We are representing YSU in bass fishing. This will help educate the team to help us excel in the tournaments making the schools name known on stage by thousands of people. This will also help recruit kids to YSU to bass fish.

Itemized costs:

We were able to get a discount for 4 members, those 4 members paid $140 each ($560). 2 other members did not have access to the code and they paid $175 each (~~$300~~) ($350). Also, 2 hotel rooms for 2 nights costed ($460), Also the gas expense will be around ($50).

Fundraising: Membership fees, basket raffles at Vic's sports center, We have sold pepperoni rolls in May and October, completed a Phonathon in March 26th and April 6th, also planning on a 50/50 raffle, a rod giveaway and a phonathon in the spring. We also plan to have another raffle at Vic's

Community Service • we have participated in helping at X- series local tournament circuit. We have also helped out and planned a tournament with the disabled veterans of Youngstown chapter 2 in 2015 and 2016. Also planning on helping in 2017. We are also helping the ODNR with a Christmas tree drop at the local lakes.

Applying for future appropriations within this academic year: Yes

Contact Person: Jared Latone

Total Number of Members: 6

Bass Fishing Club has received $0 in prior funding. Suggested appropriation amount of $1,370 from the general fund to defray costs of hotel and membership fees for seminars in Columbus. Organization plans to return for funding later in the semester.

4:10pm – Event Appropriation Applications

Organization Name: Racquetball Club

Name of Event: Mid Eastern Racquetball Regional Tournament

Event Date: 2/18/17Application Date: 12/15/16Location: Ohio State UniversityExpected Participation: 10 students from each school (5 or 6 schools) (8 men, 5 women from YSU)Total Cost of Event: $400Description of Event: Regional tournament for racquetball. It will be a little longer drive and it starts at 8am so we would like to stay 2 nights if possible (friday and saturday). The winner of this tournament will go to Nationals!!How will this event benefit YSU and the student body?: We will be representing YSU in a positive manner outside of the University. Going to the tournament as a team helps the bond within the club, and also making friends outside of campus. With the daily routine of classes, this can add a change that some people need to stay fully functional in college.Itemized Cost:

Hotel (Estimate): $100 per room per night. Two rooms needed. Total: $400

Fundraising Racquetball Club Tournament was finished Dec. 10th

4:20pm – Event Appropriation Application

Organization Name: YSU Council for Exceptional Children Student Organization

Name of Event: MILESTONES 15TH ANNUAL AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDER CONFERENCE

Event Date: 6/15/17

Application Date: 12/21/16

Location: Cleveland I-X Center

Expected Participation: Attendance of conference sessions; presentation by Dr. Temple Grandin (15 students)

Total Cost of Event: $3,500

Description of Event: Milestones' Annual Autism Conference has strived to be a forum that would best serve the needs of families, individuals with ASD, and professionals serving the autism community. Over the years, the conference has grown from 400 to 1,000+ attendees, with more than 80 workshops and 50 exhibitors. Professionals have the unique opportunity to advance their knowledge at Northeast Ohio's premier autism conference. World class speakers present on the most current research-based strategies and behavioral techniques. With more than 80 presentations to choose from, professionals are apt to find content that is a perfect fit for their patients, clients, and students. Beyond the educational opportunity, the conference affords vast opportunities for networking with colleagues and clients.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body Students will participate in professional development training sessions and presentations geared toward providing teacher candidates with strategies, skills, and knowledge to improve teaching practices and professionalism when working with students on the Autism Spectrum, as well as their families. This is an excellent opportunity for YSU students to improve instructional knowledge, network with experts in the field, while identifying valuable professional resources for classroom use. Dr. Temple Grandin is, perhaps, one of the most revered experts on Autism Spectrum Disorders and will provide a highly informative presentation.

Itemized Cost:

15 students/advisor conference fees @ $ 100.00 each =$1500.00
 Hotel accommodations (5 rooms at 225.00 per night)= $1125.00
 Transportation costs =$475.00
 Meals= $400.00

Fundraising: T-shirt sales; professional development in the SPED simulation lab for Columbiana County Headstart Program.

Community Service The organization will be working with the Walnut Grove Playground Project to fundraise, support, and participate in the development of a Youngstown-area playground for students with disabilities.

Applying for future appropriations within this academic year: Unsure

Contact Person: Jennifer S. Vaschak, Advisor

Total Number of Members: 18

Advisor has been on Medical leave and unable to thoroughly communicate with the student organization since last semester. This application was tabled for further discussion upon the advisor's return to work and the students further understanding/knowledge of the event.

4:25pm – Event Appropriation Application

Organization Name: Women's Volleyball Club

Name of Event: 2017 Scarlet & Grey Classic

Event Date: 2/11/17Application Date: 12/28/2016Location: 337 W 17th Ave, Columbus, OH 43210Expected Participation: 15Total Cost of Event: $910

Description of Event: This is a NCVF National Rankings Tournament. Through 14 possible tournaments we have decided to pick one of them to be at Ohio State, as it was the closest and most reasonable option to make our first travel. It is limited to 32 Teams with 8 courts available. There will be certified refs for each match. The NCVF Governance Rules will be in full effect. The team may withdraw from the event if a request is made in writing at least 21 days before the tournament, by January 21st. Refund requests received after this time period will not be granted except by the NCVF Women's Committee (acts of God, dangerous weather conditions, etc.). The hosting school must notify the NCVF Women's Committee of any school that withdraws less than 21 days before the tournament. Such teams may be subject to sanctions. The hosting school is required to provide a full refund within 30 days of written withdrawal. Payment Deadline is January 21st.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body?: As we begin our first season in years this will help give YSU recognition of having a competitive club sport and not just a normal club. This club provides the students with team building, leadership involvement and promotional values for incoming YSU student for the love of volleyball. This gives students the opportunity to still play competitive volleyball against different areas across the U.S.!

Itemized Cost:

Entry fees: $350

Hotel: $560

Fundraising We have offered our services to the YSU Women's Volleyball team to help them shag balls for games. We have been paid for each member at each game we attend. We will be looking into further fundraising in this coming up Spring. Possibly fundraising has been mentioned at Buffalo Wild Wings and Pepperoni Rolls that may be looked into.

Community Service This upcoming spring we will be looking for more opportunities to get involved and participate in community service opportunities.

Applying for future appropriations within this academic year: YesContact Person: Cassie SimpsonTotal Number of Members: 16

Women's volleyball club has received $0 in prior funding. Suggested appropriation of $910 from the general fund to defray the costs of entry fees and hotel stays for the tournament in Columbus.

4:30pm – Event Appropriation ApplicationOrganization Name: Sigma Chi FraternityName of Event: RoquacadeEvent Date: 3/25/17Application Date: 1/7/17Location: B & O Station and Banquet Center (Youngstown, Ohio)Expected Participation: 150 + people (in attendance); 20 + people working event (from chapter)Total Cost of Event: $750-$600

Description of Event This is our second annual "Roquacade" philanthropy event. This event is held at the B&O Station and consists of local bands performing for the evening, raising money for the Huntsman Cancer Foundation. The event also has a Chinese auction as well as a 50/50 raffle. It took place on Good Friday last year (2016) and will take place on the same date (03/25) this year (2017). The bands volunteer for free, although the venue rental costs as well as costs for rental of sound equipment, 50/50 raffle tickets, security, etc. are factored into the total cost. This event is open to both the entire student body as well as outside guests in the local community (of all ages). There is no cost for admission, but donations are accepted.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body?: This event is one of the largest we organize during the academic year and is the highest fundraising event for our philanthropy. It allows yet another venue to showcase YSU's Greek Life philanthropy, to not just those at YSU, but the community around the University as well.

Itemized Cost Venue Rental: $200

Sound/Lighting Equipment Rental: $250

Misc. Items (Basket items, Tickets for 50/50 & raffle, donation bucket): $150

~~Food Truck Rental: $150~~

Fundraising: We typically have one fundraiser a year, usually something small like a bake-sale or a restaurant takeover. The majority of our events are for philanthropic endeavors, such as "Derby Days" during the fall semester and "Roquacade" during the spring semester. Both benefit the Huntsman Cancer Foundation, our national philanthropy.

Community Service: -Recently, we held our annual "Derby Days" week-long philanthropy. We raised nearly $1,700 for Huntsman Cancer Foundation through various fundraisers and events throughout the Derby Days week.

-Being planned for the spring is "Roquacade", which was held last spring as well.

-Our entire chapter participates in some fashion from advertising, to getting bands to perform, to securing a location, etc. This event was created by us and is implemented by us as well.

-We also hold in the spring "Project Penguin" which is an effort to collect stuffed animals for local fire departments. We hold collections inside Kilcawley and also collect donations for the project as well. Each of our members participates in some fashion, as mentioned prior, from advertising, to working the tables and taking the collections to the local departments. These events are all done on behalf of our organization.

-We also take part in other chapters' philanthropies throughout the year (Greek Life). This includes taking part in Greeks on the Street last spring as will also be participated in this coming spring.

Applying for future appropriations within this academic year: Yes

Contact Person: Billy Green

Total Number of Members: 20

Sigma Chi has received $650 in prior funding. Suggested appropriation is $450 from the general fund for the rental of the venue and costs for sound and lighting equipment rental.

Organization Name: YSUnity: SOGIE Society

Name of Event: Annual Drag Show

Event Date: ~~2/17/17~~ Date pending approval

Application Date: 1/7/17

Location: Chestnut Room of Kilcawley Center

Expected Participation: 300

Total Cost of Event: $1,000-$1,500

Description of Event: We would have 4-5 performers come dance, sing, and answer questions. We would have a stage, a DJ, and decorations. We would have chairs set up around the stage and runway. We would also have a 50/50 raffle, sell merchandise, collect donations, and give out free YSUnity items (bracelets, pins, pens, cups, etc.). We would also be hoping to get a drag queen from RuPaul's Drag Race, the cost of her would be 800, and we would also have to pay for a flight from Boston and her rooming.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body?: It will educate students and the community on LGBT+ issues. It will raise awareness and also break stereotypes. It will bring publicity to the university for having such a welcoming and inclusive show, as well as bringing a big name performer from a reality program to Youngstown.

Itemized Cost:

RuPaul Drag Queen, Joslyn Fox: 800 for booking

RuPaul Drag Queen, Joslyn Fox: ≈287 for flight

4:50pm – Event Appropriation Application

Organization Name: American Marketing Association

Name of Event: International Collegiate Conference

Event Date: 3/16/17

Application Date: 1/9/17

Location: New Orleans, Louisiana

Expected Participation: 8 members

Total Cost of Event: $8,500

Description of Event: The AMA International Collegiate conference was attended last year by 1,470 students from 202 universities. The YSU AMA has been attending this the last several years and every student that has attended has found it to be an enriching experience where they're able to develop connections and other networking skills.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body By representing Youngstown State we're showing that our university has an outstanding business program as well as opportunities to keep students involved in today's ever-changing business landscape.

Itemized Cost:

Roundtrip flights from Pittsburgh to New Orleans through United Airlines are $581 per person. For eight people the total is $4,648. We would like to utilize all of SGA's available ~~$4600~~ $4,100 in funding, as we still have to fund the hotel, and entry fee.

Fundraising: Our fundraising efforts this semester include: Working 50/50 raffles at a Youngstown Phantoms game, Restaurant Takeover at Inner Circle, YSU's Got Talent (March 22nd), Consulting Project

Community Service - Collected 50 pounds of food in our winter food drive. Prom dress drive through Kyrsten's Kloset is being planned

Event Date: 4/18/17

Application Date: 1/11/17

Location: Ohio Room

Expected Participation: 70

Total Cost of Event: $970

Description of Event This is an event that SLS organizes every spring. We encourage all SLS members to attend as well as faculty and the parents of senior students. We recognize the seniors as well as the new officers for the upcoming fall semester.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body It allows us all to come together to enjoy each other and celebrate everything SLS has achieved in the past year. As an organization dedicated to leadership and service, we do not get time to focus on our own achievements. Therefore, the officers believe it is an important event to have in order to give the students an opportunity to enjoy themselves.

Itemized Cost:

Table Linens - $5.00 per table

Southern Hospitality Buffet - $12.99 per person

Fundraising: We started a brand new fundraiser and sold fleece STEM jackets in the fall. We are planning to possibly sell them again this semester and also to design and sell SLS t-shirts.

Community Service 1.)We volunteered to ring the bell for the Salvation Army in December. Around 15 students participated.

2.)We helped at OH WOW on Silly Science Sunday with exhibits, helping the kids, set up and clean up. About 10 students participated.

3.)We are planning to create a group for Guinathon, or at least to join current groups. Several students are interested and others are already committed to other teams.

4.) We are also planning to contact Habitat for Humanity to see if we can help in any clearing or building projects around the area as they have done in the past.
