Meeting with Organizations:

Dana Guitar Association of YSU

Name of Event: Guest Artist Jazz Masterclass/Concert: Julian Lage

Event Date: 3/12/2018

Application Date: 12/8/2017

Location: Room 2222, Bliss Hall, Dana School of Music, YSU

Total Cost of Event: $1,750

Number of Members Attending: 120

Description of Event: Internationally acclaimed jazz guitarist Julian Lage will be giving a jazz masterclass/concert at YSU. The event will be free and open to all YSU students, faculty, and staff, as well as the general public. It will take place on Monday, March 12, 2018 at 1:30pm-4pm.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body: Bringing a world-class musician to campus will expose YSU students to music they might not have heard before, performed at a high level of musicianship and virtuosity. Mr. Lage's masterclass and performance will feature music that will enrich YSU students' cultural awareness. Concerts like these are a vital part of the performing arts community in the greater Youngstown area.

YSU music students will also have the rare opportunity to play for Julian Lage in a masterclass setting. Such classes are excellent educational opportunities for YSU students, and are also free and open to the public.

Itemized Cost: • Masterclass/concert Fee: $1750

• Total: $1750

Will you be charging admission? No

Fundraising: -We are planning a bake sale.

-We are raising money through a guitar raffle.

-We have undertaken a sponsorship and donation drive this year. We have business sponsors and private donations. We have also received generous support from the Student Government Association of YSU.

Community Service: Participated in recently:

• Last semester and this past summer we gave free recitals in venues such as schools, and retirement facilities and nursing homes (i.e. Saint-Rose Catholic School in Youngstown, Baldwin Whitehall High School in Pittsburgh, Springfield High School, Park Vista Assisted Living, and Windsor House Assisted Living).

What is being planned?

• Our members are planning to play many free concerts and give presentations in local high schools and middle schools, such as Saint-Rose Catholic School in Youngstown, Boardman High School, and Lincoln Park Charter Arts School in Pittsburgh.

• We work to bring in guest artists to the YSU campus. It is part of the DGA's mission to promote the arts in the greater Youngstown area. Several recent concerts include guest artist recitals by Thomas Viloteau (France), Vladimir Gorbach (Russia), and Ben Monder (guitarist on David Bowie's last album). All of these concerts were free and open to the public.

Applying for future appropriations within this academic year: No

Name of Event: YSU Health Professionals Alumni Dinner

Event Date: 2/23/2018

Application Date: 12/25/2017

Location: Stambaugh Stadium Club

Total Cost of Event: $2,315

Number of Members Attending: 150 current students, 50 professionals

Description of Event:

AED and AMSA will be co-hosting our annual YSU Health Professionals Alumni Dinner at YSU. We will be inviting YSU alumni in various health fields, such as physicians, nurses, physical therapists, pharmacists, and respiratory therapists to interact and network with current YSU students. There will be two keynote speeches and dinner provided at the event, after which we will have a sort of "speed dating" session where YSU students will switch from table to table and talk with different professionals about their experiences at YSU and in their respective fields.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body: This event will give YSU students interested in pursuing careers in health-related fields the opportunity to talk with individuals that have been to YSU and have entered their respective fields. YSU students will be able to gain a realistic perspective on what they must do in order to be successful both at YSU and after in whatever career field they decide to pursue. In addition to this information, students may also be able to set up shadowing and other experience-related opportunities at this event.
