Meeting with Organizations:

Enactus

Name of Event: Monster Invitational

Event Date: 3/17/2018-3/18/2018

Application Date: 2/10/2018

Location: Watts Center

Total Cost of Event: $8,810

Number of Members Attending: 12-16 softball teams

Description of Event: Softball invitational on March 17th and 18th. Enactus's Academic Adviser Joe Angelo invited the teams to take part in this tournament. The tournament will take place over two days. We will also have concessions serving primarily pepperoni rolls and drinks. Proceeds of this event will go toward community service projects to improve the well-being of the individuals as well as businesses of Youngstown. It will also help us attend our national competition in Kansas City, Mo.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body: This event will benefit Youngstown State University and Youngstown itself by allowing YSU to become more engaged with other college-aged individuals from out of town, and could potentially promote enrollment of new students. It will also benefit Youngstown by promoting local businesses and tourism due to hosting this event at YSU. This event will help the student body, specifically Enactus, by helping to fundraise for our community service projects that help the well-being of local Youngstown individuals and businesses, our projects overseas such as starting a business with local Ghana youth, and to travel to our national competition in Kansas City, Mo.

Itemized Cost: Security = $770.00 total

Building = $2800.00 total

Will you be charging admission? $525 per team

Fundraising: This event is our first fundraising effort of the year. We also plan to look for sponsors for the event, host a chili cook-off, and sell midterm and finals survival kits to fundraise.

Community Service: -We are currently revitalizing Enactus as it was dormant for a period of time. We have community service planned in the near future which most of our club is planning on participating in. These community service projects are both being hosted by our organization and our organization participating in larger community service networks.

-We plan to attend Relay for Life this year.

-We plan on working directly with YNDC.

-We have a project in Ghana currently in its beginning stages where we are taking six Ghana youth and teaching them how to start a business in order to allow them to start saving money for college, give back to their own community, and give them a way to participate in a good community environment.

-We plan to host workshops in the near future to teach financial literacy to people from the homeless shelter down the street from YSU.

HPAC/HCOP

Name of Event: Buddies Not Barriers

Event Date: 3/25/2018

Application Date: 2/25/2018

Location: YSU Watt's Center

Total Cost of Event: Approximately $350

Number of Members Attending: 100 People

Description of Event: We are hosting an event for YSU students and members of the DSAV and Rich Center for Autism. It will be an event that allows YSU students and volunteers to buddy up with members of the two communities to hopefully break the barrier between the two. It will be a day full of crafts, scavenger hunts, and food! Autism and down syndrome awareness will also be spread throughout the event with the help of informational stands and speakers.

How will this event benefit YSU and the student body: It will unite the two groups and YSU students so there is not a barrier between "normal people" and special needs people.

Itemized Cost: Water Bottles $4.00 per case x 6 cases = $24

Pizza $20 per sheet x 10 sheets = $200

Cookie Tray $20 per tray x 2 trays = $40
